

CHALLENGE #2 OF 7- 'THE DEEP'

Thanks for taking the Oceans of Discovery Blue Planet challenge. The questions in Activity 1 can be answered while watching episode 2 of David Attenboroughs Blue Planet 2.

QUESTION

ANSWER

Where can you find the most life anywhere on earth?

Name the fish that migrates to shallower depths to feed at night?

What do Humboldt Squid do when there is no more Lantern Fish to feed on?

Name a marine animal that feeds on falling marine snow?

What do Six-Gilled Sharks feed on and how long can they go without a meal?

What do the feeding Spider Crabs have on their backs as makeshift armour

What is destroying many of the beautiful deep sea reefs?

What happens the Cutthroat Eel if they spend too long in the underwater brine lake

Name the deepest part of the ocean and how deep is it?

What is the Mid-Oceanic Ridge that runs the length of the Atlantic Ocean?

Activity 1

Activity 2

The Deep Ocean can be divided up into four different zones. These are the; 1) Sunlight Zone, 2) Twilight Zone, 3) Midnight Zone and 4) Abyssal Zone

Can you research these zones and name two animals that live in each zone?

Challenge

From these fascinating deep sea creatures, pick your favorite and make/decorate your own fishy replica!

To enter the draw or gain a certification credit, please email a photo of the poster to oceansofdiscovery@gmail.com